

Founded in 1945, CARE is an international humanitarian organisation committed to helping families in poor communities improve their lives and achieve lasting victories over poverty. CARE also delivers emergency aid to survivors of war and natural disasters, and helps people rebuild their lives. Women are at the heart of CARE's community based poverty-fighting and disaster-relief programs.

CARE is present in Lebanon as a part of its regional response to the Syrian crisis and provides relief and support to the Syrian refugees. CARE is active in Lebanon since 2006 and started operating anew in Mount Lebanon and Beirut since April 2013, developing programs in Water, Sanitation and Hygiene, Shelter, Social Cohesion, Livelihoods and Protection (with a focus on SGBV).

CARE Lebanon is looking for a Field Coordinator for its Emergency Program. The opening of the position is pending to approval of funding.

Purpose / Role

The Field Coordinator will lead and manage the Emergency Response Team (ERT) and associated emergency programs and be the interface between the Emergency Team and the Country Director. The Field Coordinator is responsible for the quality and effectiveness of CARE's emergency response within his/her designated area of responsibility. He/she is the leader of the Emergency Response Team, responsible and accountable for developing, coordinating and managing all emergency activities. The Field Coordinator has overall responsibility for the security and well being of ERT staff.

The Field Coordinator is expected to provide strategic leadership in all areas of emergency programming and strengthen the country office's overall capacity to be prepared and respond to emergencies in accordance with accepted principles and practices, as well as strategically integrate emergency programming within the overall program approach. As a member of the Country Leadership Team the Field Coordinator is also expected to actively contribute to the overall governance of the country office, and delivery of its strategic and annual operating plan.
