Are you passionate about fighting poverty, defending dignity, and delivering lasting change?

One of the world's leading humanitarian and development organisations, CARE International is committed to fighting poverty and injustice in the world's most vulnerable places and to saving lives in disasters and conflicts. As a key member of the global confederation, CARE International UK raises money for CARE's humanitarian and development work around the world and provides expertise in the areas of humanitarian response, private sector engagement, governance, and empowering women and girls.

We are currently seeking an exceptional Programme and Policy Director. Reporting to the Chief Executive and as a member of the Senior Management Team, you will be responsible for providing leadership to the Programme and Policy directorate as well as contributing to the development and implementation of organisational strategy. You will be the key spokesperson on international development and humanitarian issues for CARE International UK and will be responsible for developing important relationships with external stakeholders including key institutional donors, civil society and the private sector. You will have a critical role in the development and implementation of CARE International's global programme strategy and will represent CARE International UK within the global confederation as we are leading three important elements of the strategy and host three CARE International global teams - Women's Economic Empowerment, Governance, and Emergency Shelter.

The ideal candidate will bring strong strategic leadership and management skills. You will have extensive experience working in or with international NGOs. You will have experience working both in developing countries and at a senior headquarters level. You will have an in-depth knowledge of contemporary humanitarian and development issues and will have the ability to represent CARE International UK externally. You will bring strong networks across civil society as well as strong stakeholder management skills. You will be entrepreneurial, a committed team player, influencer, and perhaps most importantly, align with our mission and values.
